

Marriage Preparation and the Sacrament of Marriage

The first step in arranging for marriage is to contact the church office 6 months before the intended date. Required activities include an interview with the priest, a pre-marital inventory and counseling. Sessions are conducted on an individual basis.