The Men of St. Joseph are offering the Outback Retreat the weekend of October 25-27, 2019. The group is working with the Archdiocese of Mobile to specifically target students who are freshmen or sophomores in high school. The unique charism of this retreat is that one does not attend alone; rather pairs attend the weekend. The upcoming Outback is for a teen and a parent. This is a great way to evangelize both teens and parents. The hope is that once a parent and a teen are both evangelized they will return to the parish with a renewed openness. Please call or email Patrick Arensberg with any questions or concerns, or to arrange for someone to speak to parish about the retreat ((251) 433-6991(pahrensberg@mobarch.org))

THE FRIENDS OF CATHOLIC CEMETERY will be holding their annual Fall Cleanup Day on Saturday, October 19th. CONVERGING IMPROBABILITIES

So everyone knows that I'm heading to Italy to attend (and concelebrate) the Mass of canonization of John Henry Cardinal Newman. What could be better than taking (a very small!) active part in the honoring of my own personal spiritual and theological hero? Actually, quite a bit...

As is my custom, when I go to Italy by myself my primary stop is always Assisi. And it turns out that just a couple of days earlier than my arrival (Friday, 4 October) is the feast of St Francis of Assisi!

What will I do when I get there? My "typical" run involves Mass at the Basilica where he is buried, Mass at the Porziuncola where he died, and Evening Prayer/Adoration in San Damiano, where he prayed so fervently for guidance. But of course this time there'll be more.

My dear friends in Italy have another dear friend from the States who will be leading a pilgrimage group at this time, and so I'll be able to concelebrate Mass with them on Wednesday, 9 October, in the chapel of the Crucifix through which Francis heard the call to become the saint he is today.

It will also be the middle of the "40 Days For Life" campaign in Mobile, and I will be offering that Mass explicitly for the success of ALL pro-life activities in our country: protection for the unborn, respect for the elderly and terminally ill, recognition of the dignity of migrants and refugees at our borders, and so on. And yes—there'll be more.

That day will be 9 October—the anniversary (back in 1845) of Newman's conversion to the Catholic Church. If my buddy from college days, Bill Johnston, will be flying in to join me in Rome on that day, I'll be rejoicing at the altar in Santa Chiara in a very special way. And yes, again—there'll be more.

That Wednesday is also Yom Kippur, the great Jewish Day of Atonement. It is, if you like, a one-day Jewish "Lent." And I will be remembering in prayer my friends who are (in the words of Pope St John Paul II) "our elder brothers and sisters in faith." Why do they have one day of repentance while we have 40? "Because we have more to repent of," I usually reply.

Newman spoke about reason and faith and the fact that reasoning can take us so far, but no further. His analogy was something like spokes on a wheel that didn't quite connect with the axle but all pointed in that direction. And so he referred to evidences as offering "converging probabilities" that stand in for certainty in the Faith. It's what makes an act of faith a reasonable thing, even if not a provable thing. My days will be filled with unexpected (and "unreasonable") convergences, from Francis to Newman to Jewish feasts to respect for all life. And this is why we so often refer to God as "the God of surprises." You'd almost think Someone was in charge, wouldn't you??

Fr. David

KNIGHT'S KORNER

OCTOBER is shaping up to be a busy month for us. First we had our annual Tootsie Roll Drive this past Saturday to benefit people with intellectual disabilities. This coming weekend we'll be doing tent set ups and cooking for our annual parish picnic. The following weekend we'll be cooking down at the Little Sisters of the Poor facility for their annual lawn party fundraising event. No complaints this is what we do as we faithfully practice our Catholic faith through service. Finally we'd like to congratulate our family of the month recipients for September, the Walsh family (Amy, Van, and their children). This award is part of the Faith in Action initiative which recognizes families which have made significant contributions to the parish and church community. Vivat Jesus!!!

RAFFLE TICKETS: We have almost sold 200 tickets out of the possible 300 we hope to sell. We only have three more drawings, and then the big one. We all still have good odds to win but we would still like to sell more tickets and give others a chance to join the fun. We are trying to be there after the Masses again so spread the word. Thank you for your participation. Any profits that we receive will be going to help worthy causes. So in the end, we are all winners.

NEWS FROM THE RELIGIOUS EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

In the pastoral effort to respond to a heightened need for the protection of our children, the Archdiocese of Mobile has developed a Program for the Protection of Children and Adolescents. As a part of this program, all children in grades K through 12 in parish religious programs will be given strategies on how to protect themselves. Since parents are their children's primary teachers, an integral part of the program will be to provide parents with information to help their children remain safe.

Our Savior Catechists will be presenting this program during religious education classes on Sunday, October 6 in grades K-8. Training for high school will be Sunday, October 13. Make up for grades K-8 will be October 13 and high school make up will be October 20. In addition, your children will bring home a bit of homework to be shared with you.
